Describe your complaint in detail. Include the names of all persons who were involved of this investment, include the dates of all conversations and meetings and describe the representations that were made and who made them. Attach copies of all documents related to the investment, and the front and back sides of any checks used to purchase the investment. Please use extra paper if needed.

On February 9, 2009, I talked with Russell Wilkins, V.P. of Stanford Coins & Bullion and one of his assistants, a man whose name I do not remember. I asked if they had a Memphis office where I could receive and pay for the coins I was ordering. They said no, but I later learned they do have a Memphis office. We agreed on coin denominations and price the next day, February 10. I FedEx'd a cashiers check (copy enclosed) on February 10, and their bank processed it on February 12 (copy enclosed). After receiving my check Russell Wilkins and his assistant called me with a different price and that some of the coins were not available. To expedite the order, I agreed to the price increase and some different coins. Russell Wilkins told me they would ship my order the week of February 16, 2009, and it was not received.

Final Step

Are you willing to be a witness if proceedings are initiated by the Securities Division?

Yes No

The information I have stated in this complaint is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge.
